Naples, Oct. 28.

COrn being at present very scarce here, our Viceroy, the Marquis de los Veles is taking care to supply us from abroad, and for that purpose has raised a sum of Money. The Levies of this Kingdom are continued, our Viceroy, as we are informed, having received orders from Spain to raise in all 10000 Foot, and to fill the Magazines with Arms, Powder, and other Military Provisions. From Reggio we have advice that eight Men of War of Tripoli have lately appeared in the Seas of Calabria, and that they had taken a Vessel belonging to Maltha, and another to Genoua. The Viceroy has declared, That he will grant a pardon to such Banditi as will come in and put themselves into the Kings Service, and has directed the Courts of Justice to Reprieve such Criminals as are Condemned to die, and to send them to the Galleys.

Warsaw, Oct. 30. We are assured that the King and Queen of Poland will be here about the middle of December, when the Senate will meet to receive the report of our Ambassador, who is returning from Moscow. Against that time, Prince Radzevil, who has been at Vienna, at Venice, and at Rome, it's believed will be likewise here, and it's not doubted but that the account he gives of the disposition he found those Courts in to assist this Crown, in case it be engaged in a War with the Turks, will have a great Influence upon the Debates and Resolutions of the Senate. There is a discourse concerning the calling a Dyet to meet in January, but without any certainty. The Troops of this Kingdom, as well as those of the Grand Signior, who have layn most of the Summer on the Frontiers of this Kingdom, and near Caminiec, are now in their Winter-Quarters, where they will continue till Spring, when the Conferences for adjusting the Limits between us and the Turks will be renewed. The Marquis de Vitri, Ambassador Extraordinary from the French King, arrived here the last week, and is gone to wait upon their Majesties. We have advice that Sierko, General of the Cossacks, a man famous in these parts for the many considerable Actions he has been in, is dead.

Genoua, Nov. 6. By a Vessel arrived from Sicily we have advice, That on the 6th past the Gallys of Maltha met with two Ships belonging to Tripoli, which after a fight of several hours they took, but were no sooner Masters of them, but they both sunk, and in them 80 Maltese, who perished with 600 Turks that were on board them. From Milan they write that the Count de Melgar, their Governor, had reformed 40 Companies of Foot, and put the men into other Regiments.

Venice, Nov. 9. The last week we received Letters from Constantinople, which give an account that there were endeavours used to conclude a Peace between the Turks and the Moscovites, which it was believed both Parties were well enough enclined to. The Duke of Mantoua, who has been some time here, parted yesterday for Padua. Signior Donato is preparing for his Embassy to Constantinople.

Strasburg, Nov. 15. The Bishop of Strasburg continues as yet in our Neighbourhood, but will not do long so, intending as we are told to return very suddenly to France. Count Chavaignac, who is General of Battaile in the Emperors Service, is come hither, and intends to pass the Winter here. It is said that Orders are come from France to employ more hands on the Fortifications of Brisac, Schlestadt, Friburg, Hunningen, &c. in order to the speedy finishing them.

Cologne Nov. 18. It is confidently said, That before Christmas we shall hear something concerning a Coadjutor, which our Elector is as they say at last prevailed upon to consent to: He must be chosen by the Chapter, and the Prince of Furstemberg is not wanting in the mean time to advance, what he can, the pretention of his Brother the Bishop of Strasburg, who we hear is going to Paris; but this is a thing that has been often talked of when there was little ground for it, and so perhaps it may be at this time. The Electoress Palatine Dowager arrived on Saturday last at Francfort, and parted again the next day for Heydelberg.

Hamburg, Nov. 18. From Poland they write, That the King and Queen arrived the 25th past at Jaworow, and intended to remove in few days again to Zolkiew, where they would remain till towards the Dyet, which is appointed to meet at Warsaw the 15th of January, in order to the taking those resolutions that the State of Affairs may require. From Berlin we have an account, that the Elector of Brandenburg, upon the Instances of the Dutch Minister there, had caused the Placaet, which he had ordered to be Published for recalling his Subjects out of the Service of the States General of the United Provinces, to be stopt. The Letters from Sueden say, That the King had demanded of the States assembled at Stockholme, five Millions, which it was believed they would grant, and that the matter concerning the reunion of the Crown-Lands met with great difficulties, which it was likely would at last be overcome.

Brussels, Nov. 26. On Sunday last the Prince of Parma sent an Express to Spain, to give, as we are told, the King an account of the State of these Provinces. The Marquis de Bourgomanero, Ambassador to the Emperor, is still here. Yesterday the Sieur Battier, Envoy from the Duke of Zell, had his first Audience of the Prince of Parma.

Marseilles, Nov. 19. We have not of late had any
